MARTIN LION

L'ATELIER NICHE

A person who lived in 300 BC, devoted his life to plants, talking to plants and reflecting their essence to his life; Theophrastus... The plants of Theophrastus, which has the first botanical garden in the universe and whose whole world consists of this botanical garden, from the notes of all future perfumes... Now, under the Martin Lion series of this world, witness the essence of plants on your skin, and the scent you have wrapping you with a wind from the past...

"Specialy prepared notes at every point..."
"From the past, come to life in your skin..."
