

MARTIN LION

L'ATELIER NICHE

A person who lived in 300 BC, devoted his life to plants, talking to plants and reflecting their essence to his life; Theophrastus... The plants of Theophrastus, which has the first botanical garden in the universe and whose whole world consists of this botanical garden, from the notes of all future perfumes... Now, under the Martin Lion series of this world, witness the essence of plants on your skin, and the scent you have wrapping you with a wind from the past...

"From the past, come to life in your skin..."*

Vierge Montagne

*A timeless and influencing feeling, lined up with notes...
A gentle breeze caressing your skin when you are at the closest point to the scorching heat of the sun, in a unique, powerful, country garden almost at the top of a mountain.
The richness of the fruits that hit your nose with that wind, the richness of jasmine and rose while it combines with its naivety, it ends with the strikingness of sandalwood.*
